JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that defendant, Bahman Bobby Behzadi, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 50 months.

On release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, and from abusing alcohol and prescription medications during the period of supervision;
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required;
5. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
6. The defendant shall perform 1,000 hours of community service at the rate of at least 300 hours per year until completed as directed by the Probation Officer and approved by the Court;
7. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform an additional 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer and approved by the Court;

8. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
9. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior approval of the Probation Officer;
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
11. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation; and
12. The defendant shall submit his person and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer or other electronic devices or media, and effects, to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement or probation officer with or without warrant, and with or without cause. If questioned by a law enforcement officer for any reason, the defendant shall notify that officer that defendant is on federal supervised release and subject to search.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $7,990,310 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663 A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
FDIC	$7,999,310

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly installments of at least $200 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Jose Manuel Rubin (Docket No. CR 16-759 DSF), Jose Ysidro Fernandez (Docket CR 15-81 DSF); Eugene Kucherov (Docket No. CR 14-449 DSF), and Phillip Arnisht Sobrepena (Docket No. CR 14-77 DSF) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court grants the government's oral motion to dismiss the remaining count of the Information.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider the defendant for placement in its 500-hour Residential Drug Abuse Program.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on January 16, 2018. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
